Minutes were reviewed by the team and was adopted (motion by Larose and seconded by Rampersaud)

Recap of the Brunch to be held at the Tropics Restaurant on May 18th, 2003

All agreed that it was once again a very successful brunch. At $10.00, the quality of the food, service, the set ups and entertainment was well received. In regard to sajes, John La Rose sold 100 tickets. After all of the expenses had been taken out the brunch netted $1,800.00.

ICQC October Convention:

The schedule of events for the ICQC meeting was reviewed. It was felt that the Opening Reception should be hosted by the local chapter or sponsored by a local company. John Yates volunteered to pursue sponsorship.

The venue for the Welcome Reception was discussed. It was agreed that Sundays on the Bay, in Key Biscayne, was an ideal location.

An honorary membership for Mr. Lance Gibbs was agreed upon. Mr. Shakoor Manraj (A Prominent Guyanese attorney) would be approached by Mr. David Rampersaud to address the ICQC body at the Saturday meeting.

A central location in Broward is still being sought for the Saturday meeting. The Saturday night fete was well received, President Yasin, Adit Saywak and John LaRose had visited the location in Davie. It is to be held at a very large bome in the open air, with DJ entertainment. Ticket prices have been set at $45.00 in advance and $60.00 at the door.

A program booklet with sponsors off setting the cost will be explored by John Yates.
